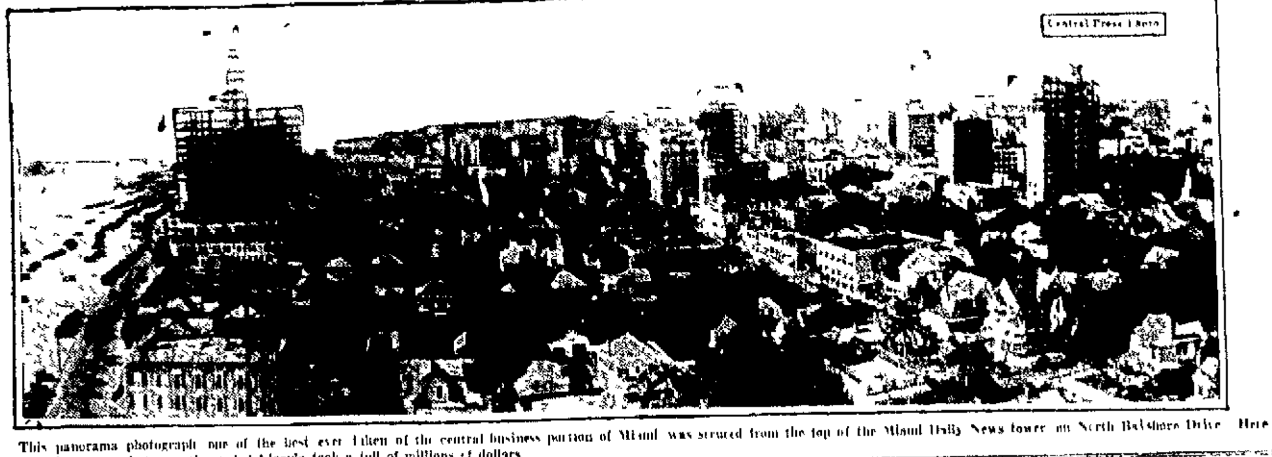
Where Storm Took Millions Toll—Central Business Portion of Miami



This panorama photograph, one of the best ever taken of the central business portion of Miami, was secured from the top of the Miami Daily News tower on North Bayshore Drive. Here the tropical hurricane that recently visited Florida took a toll of millions of dollars.

Hurricane Strikes Gulf Coast With Paralyzing Blow

Storm Continues With Undiminished Vigor, With Wind Reaching Velocity of 100 Miles Per Hour, Sweeps Out of Florida

MOBILE AND PENSACOLA COMMUNICATION CUT OFF

Special Relief Trains and Airplanes Speed Toward Stricken Area; Miami, Hollywood, Coral Gables and Other Cities Hit

ROARING out of the southeast, the West Indian hurricane that left a grisly trail of death and destruction in Florida, continued with undiminished vigor today and at noon had struck the gulf coast with a paralyzing blow.

A wind whose velocity was estimated by meteorologists at 100 miles an hour, swept up and out of stricken Florida and in an hour had cut off Mobile and Pensacola from outside communication. In its wake it left ruined buildings, stricken ships and death.

At noon, more than 24 hours after the hurricane struck America's playground along the southeast Florida coast, only a general estimate of the appalling damage wrought in Florida could be obtained.

The magic city of Miami, Eden-like Miami Beach, Hollywood, Coral Gables and a dozen other winter communities were still cut off from communication while special relief trains and airplanes and automobiles sped toward the area with badly needed supplies.

The death list is variously estimated at from 500 to 1,000, and those who attempted to check up the disaster admitted it may be several days before anything like an accurate count is possible.

The property damage is so enormous that relief agencies and eye-witnesses hesitate to calculate it. Buildings have been razed by the hundreds, ships sunk, crops ruined, power and water plants put out of commission. The most commonly accepted figure for property damage is $100,000,000—but even that is admitted to be a guess.

Mobile and Pensacola may get off more lightly than did the wealthy playgrounds from Palm Beach to Key West for these communities had ample warning that the [illegible] was headed their way and the last messages from these cities reported that preparations had been taken accordingly.

Meanwhile every agency of relief and rehabilitation was working to restore order and communication with the stricken cities of the Florida peninsula.

The entire machinery of the federal government—War Department, Navy Department and even the Postoffice Department—was placed in motion to aid in the work. The War Department ordered nearby army posts to rush supplies in proportion to the necessity. The Navy Department dispatched a dozen destroyers and mobilized naval militia to aid in policing the stricken zone and the postmaster general ordered all employes of the postal service in the state to lend their aid in identifying the victims of the hurricane.

President Coolidge, impressed by the enormity of the disaster and the urgent necessity of relief measures, at noon issued an appeal to the country to contribute generously to the American Red Cross, which is making heroic efforts to feed and succor the thousands of homeless in the devastated zone.

Red Cross officials by airplane, train and motor are converging upon Florida from many parts of the country, and by nightfall it is believed they will have the bulk of relief flowing freely.

The principal difficulty with southeast Florida lies in the absence of communications. All wires were down, radio stations were dismantled and put out of commission, roads were blocked and communication continued to be a slow process as the day advanced despite the heroic efforts of telephone and telegraph companies to repair the damage.

Coolidge Asks Help for Florida

URGES PEOPLE TO GIVE FREELY TO SUFFERERS

Machinery of Federal Relief Set in Motion by United States Government

Washington, Sept 20—President Coolidge, alarmed by the increasing magnitude of the Florida hurricane disaster, this afternoon issued an appeal to the people of the United States to open their purse strings and contribute generously through the Red Cross for relief work among the thousands of sufferers.

FEDERAL RELIEF FOR FLORIDA

Washington, Sept 20—The machinery of federal relief was set in motion today to aid the thousands of homeless and stricken people in Florida.

The American Red Cross has telegraphed all its chapters to stand by to succor tornado-torn cities and to the largest chapters nearest the scene disaster orders have been dispatched to rush all possible foodstuffs and tents to the devastated area.

The War Department is ready to rush further supplies from its nearest concentration points, the actual movement awaiting only definite information as to where they are most needed.

President Coolidge will confer with army officials this morning on relief measures and a presidential proclamation may be issued calling on the nation to lend a hand to the stricken communities of Florida.

A message from J. J. Sharman, gen

DONAHEY SENDS NOTE OF SYMPATHY TO FLORIDA

Columbus, Sept 20—Recalling Florida's interest in Ohio's great disaster at Lorain of a little more than two years ago, Governor A. Vic Donahey this morning wired Gov John W. Martin of Florida the state's sympathy and offering any aid the state of Ohio may give.

"Ohio extends sincerest sympathy to Florida in her disaster. We are reminded of the northern Ohio tornado of June 28, 1924. If this state can be of assistance to you in any way please command us," his wire read.

MAJ. GEN. HOWZE DIES IN COLUMBUS HOSPITAL

Commanding Officer of Fifth Corps Area Well Known in Marion

Maj Gen Robert Lee Howze, commanding officer of the Fifth Corps Area with headquarters at Ft Hayes, Columbus, who died in Grant Hospital, Columbus, Sunday, was well known in Marion where he had visited frequently as officer in charge of the guard detachment at the Harding Tomb. In addition to his official visits here General Howze attended social and civic meetings in Marion on several occasions and about a year ago was speaker at a luncheon event of the Rotary Club.

The death of General Howze came unexpectedly, following an operation Saturday for septic gall bladder. He passed away at 2:15 Sunday afternoon. His last official act was to review the parade of the 166th Infantry, Ohio National Guard, in Columbus several weeks ago.

General Howze was 62 years of age and had been in the U S Army 42 years, counting cadet service at West Point. He was one of the best known officers in army circles.

The Fifth Corps Area was placed under the command of General Howze in July, 1925. He went to the Columbus post after six years of service as officer in charge of the First Cavalry Division at Ft Bliss, Texas.

General Howze won honors for distinguished service in the Indian wars of 1890, the Spanish American war, on the Mexican border, and in the World War. In addition to medals awarded him by his own country he was decorated by the French with the Croix de Guerre with palm and membership in the Legion of Honor.

MANY FORMER MARION PEOPLE IN STORM AREA

Relatives and Friends Here Unable to Learn Fate, Wires Down

Efforts of friends and relatives to ascertain the fate of numerous former Marion people who reside in Florida, some in the sections which were directly in the path of the storm which brought widespread death and disaster to the southern state, proved futile today. Telegraph lines leading into the devastated area were down during the early morning hours and even after partial communication was re-established it was next to impossible to get messages of inquiry through, so great was the demand for service from all parts of the country.

Following receipt of the first tidings indicating the vast extent of the disaster numerous telephone calls came to the Star office from anxious friends and kinfolk concerned over the welfare of the former Marion residents and others of their acquaintance known to be in the storm district.

All possible steps to re-establish wire communications that will carry full reports of the disaster, including lists of the dead and injured, are being taken today with the probability that complete information will be available not later than tomorrow.

Marion List

Mr and Mrs M B Dickerson and daughter, former well known residents of this city, are at Miami Beach where Mr Dickerson is the proprietor of a restaurant. Miami Beach was in the center of the territory where the storm damage was greatest. Mr Dickerson, who was postmaster here about 10 years ago, left Marion with his family about two weeks ago following a visit with his daughter, Mrs Hector S. Young of Kensington Place.

Mr and Mrs D J Furnage, the latter a former Marion girl, reside at Homestead, Florida, also in the territory where the force of the storm was most severe. Mrs Furnage is the daughter of William G. Marshall of the Frank Automobile agency sales organization.

Dr and Mrs [illegible] Holmes, the latter a former Marion resident, live at Coco[illegible], Florida, near the east coast. Before her

REBELLIOUS INDIANS ARE DEFEATED BY TROOPS

Yaqui Rebels Being Driven Out of Valley, According to Reports

El Paso, Tex, Sept 20—Federal troops have defeated the main body of rebellious Yaqui Indians in Mexico and are driving them out of the valley, General Alvaro Obregon, former president of Mexico, telegraphed Enrique Liekens, Mexican consul general here today.

General Obregon, who has been reported wounded, missing and dead for the last several days, advised that he was unharmed in skirmishes with the Indians. He now is at his plantation camp at Cajeme, Sonora, in the Yaqui delta.

General Francisco Manzos and his troop of federals are forcing the Yaquis to retreat, Obregon said. At Corral Junction the Indians carried off the Mexican telegraph operator, Manuel Encinas, after destroying the wires.

DECLAMATORY CONTEST TO BE HELD IN MARION

Marion Star and Churches Co-operating in Annual Peace Campaign

The Marion Star, co-operating with the Marion County Ministerial Association, today announced that it would [illegible] to the winner of the Marion County Peace Declamatory Contest which will be held in the churches of the city and county next month.

Plans for the contest were made at the meeting of the Marion Ministerial Association at Marion Public Library this morning.

According to instructions received from the secretary of the Ohio Council of Churches at Columbus recently, boys and girls from 11 to 18 years of age in any church in the city and county will be eligible to enter the contest. [illegible] entrants must not be college students.

At least three contestants must be enrolled in the contests in order to be eligible for prizes or medal awards. Contestants are to enroll through their respective pastors. Each will pick a selection from a booklet of material for the purpose compiled by the Ohio Council of Churches and will deliver it in competition with the other entrants.

First Contests

The first contests will be held in each of the local churches. A bronze medal will be awarded by the Ohio Council of Churches to the winner in each church that has three or more contestants.

Following the initial church contests the winners will meet in a county contest for a silver medal which will be given in addition to the prize offered by the Marion Star. County champions will then meet in a congressional district for a gold medal award.

The gold medal winners of the entire state will next meet in Columbus for the state and final contest. Three cash prizes amounting to $1,000 and three college scholarships will be offered to the winners.

It is expected that the opening contests in the churches will be a feature of the observance of Armistice Sunday, Nov 7.

Howard P Lamb, secretary of the Ohio Council of Churches, is in charge of the contest. A committee of the Marion Ministerial Association will conduct the contests in Marion County.

It has been reported that more than 35 of the churches that took part in the first annual contest last year were re-enrolled immediately for the second.

Miami, Miami Beach Heaviest Sufferers

(Copyright, 1926, by I N S)

Jacksonville, Fla, Sept 20—Miami, whose marvelous man-made speed in development and construction brought its title—"The magic city"—today was shoved back where it was 10 years ago—leveled by the greater necromancy of nature in faster time than puny human could ever achieve.

The famous resort and its neighbor Miami Beach were the heaviest sufferers in the terrific hurricane which swept in early Saturday morning, tearing down all communication with the lower east Florida coast, ripping apart all things before it, blowing down homes and razing office buildings and leaving an estimated death toll of at least 1,000 with possibilities that this may rise as bodies are uncovered from debris.

Property damage may reach hundreds of millions.

The most optimistic estimates rate the death list as at least four hundred.

50,000 Homeless

Almost 50,000 persons are homeless or living in temporary shelter in southern Florida, according to checks by railroad officials who have been throwing all their resources into the gigantic task of restoring transportation facilities. For the first time since the storm struck, a through train from Miami arrived here last night bringing all those who could crowd aboard with gripping stories of the desolation left by the storm.

The Miami train passed two long sections of a Jacksonville train bearing food, medical supplies and relief workers. Three hundred state militiamen hastily ordered to mobilize by Governor John W Martin, a hundred Red Cross nurses and doctors and sanitation experts from the State Board of Health on the train were the vanguard of northern Florida's relief measures.

Piles of Dead

Piles of dead in Miami hotels being used as temporary morgues, large broken ships resting in streets five blocks from the waterfront where they had been blown by the storm, virtual destruction of residential districts for blocks and militia shooting down looters of debris were some of the pictures brought back by the survivors last night.

The huge resort hotels where the social celebrities of the nation gather in the winter are in many cases damaged beyond repair, passengers from the train declared. Practically every window in the Breakers, Biltmore and other large hostelries have been broken and many of the smaller hotels are in danger of collapse.

Stories of families seeing their homes demolished or their kinfolk killed were common. Harry Otto, a Miami Beach policeman, on his way back to his home at Philadelphia, said he saw 200 bodies in the McAllister Hotel lobby and cellar at Miami.

Asks 600 Coffins

Sheriff Henry Chase, of Dade County, in a radio message picked up by amateur wireless operators here, asked 600 coffins be sent to Miami.

The Tropical Radio Station at Miami, which afforded the main communication with the outside world after the July 27 hurricane, was almost demolished by the storm, and succeeded in broadcasting weak appeals for aid early yesterday only before work had been done to construct a makeshift radio tower.

The local Chamber of Commerce, meeting last night, organized preliminary relief measures with all large civic organizations and business houses volunteering the limit in resources to help storm victims.

Governor John W Martin passed through here early this morning, enroute from Tallahassee to southern Florida where he will personally direct a large part of the relief work.

The heavy rain Wednesday night is assigned as the cause of attendance falling below expectations. With favorable weather prevailing throughout the week it is believed that the crowds would have been somewhere near the largest in history. Thursday's attendance was considerably below the average of past years. Friday's approached normal proportions and Saturday drew only a fair sized crowd.

From the standpoint of exhibits and entertainment features, however, last week's event was of an exceptionally high standard and the fair management is well pleased with the general outcome.

As a consequence of extensive displays in the livestock, farm products and fine arts departments, premium payments this year will run about 50 per cent above the total of last year.

Check Distribution

The work distributing checks to winners of the numerous awards is already under way and will be completed this week. This is being done from the office of the fair board secretary, R. Lindsey Leeper, on [illegible] st. His office equipment and clerical force were transferred to uptown headquarters from the fairgrounds Saturday evening.

The executive committee of the fair organization will meet at Mr. Leeper's office Saturday to hear a detailed report of receipts and expenditures and wind up the affairs of this year's fair.

PERSHING REFUSES TO ACCEPT LEGION POST

General Declares He Is Content to Serve in Ranks of Body

Washington, Sept. 20—General Pershing, who has consistently refused the honors that fond followers wanted to heap upon him, has declined another, perhaps the crown of all honors. It is as follows:

In a letter made public here he checked a rapidly growing movement to place him at the head of the American Legion, the organization which lies closest to his heart because of its connection with his greatest achievement as a soldier.

"I am compelled to deny myself the opportunity for an honor that might well crown the career of any soldier," he wrote to the George Washington post of the Legion.

"I am not a candidate for the office and have not authorized the use of my name in that connection. I shall be content to serve in the ranks.

"Because of important work that I have accepted at present it would not be possible for me to give the exclusive attention to this task which efficient leadership demands."

RICKARD WILL POST MILLION BOND IN FIGHT

Sum to Cover All Suits and Injunctions; "Can't Stop Me," He Says

Philadelphia, Sept. 20—Tex Rickard was today ready to post a $1,000,000 bond to cover all suits and injunctions being brought to prevent the Jack Dempsey-Gene Tunney heavyweight championship bout in Sesqui Stadium next Thursday night.

Rickard made this announcement after completing arrangements with the Madison Square Garden corporation of New York and Edward S. [illegible] president of the National Surety Co., which is represented here by former Mayor Thomas B. Smith.

"The fight is going on," said Rickard. "These legal skirmishes can't stop me. I have $1,000,000 in cash from advance sales. I have a bondsman who will be constantly at my side ready to post $1,000,000 at any moment of the night or day to prevent any writs of attachments, garnishees, injunctions or whatever they may produce in the way of interference."

Clements Plans Action

In the meantime B. E. Clements, president of the Chicago Coliseum Club, who recently obtained an injunction against the bout taking place in Indiana courts, plans to take similar action here. Clements has based his action on the grounds that he has a contract calling for Dempsey to meet Harry Wills, negro challenger, before taking part in any other contest. Clements will apply for an injunction today, he said.

Rickard estimates that 70,000 persons will be turned away from the bout. Among those who already have secured seats are:

Vice President Dawes, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, Speaker Nicholas Longworth, [illegible] representatives, [illegible] the [illegible] states and [illegible].

Pennsylvania Trains To Be Equipped With Automatic Signals and Controls, Claim

Extension of Device System Will Cost Company Approximately $8,000,000; Represents Greatest Investment for Protection Ever Undertaken by Lines

From all indications at present, Pennsylvania trains passing through Marion in the future will be equipped with automatic signals and train controls, according to a bulletin issued by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. recently.

Extension of automatic signals and train control devices now being made on the Pennsy lines involve expenditures totaling $8,000,000. The expenditures being made at this time represent the greatest investment and most extensive installation of signal protection ever undertaken by the Pennsy or any other railroad at one time, according to the bulletin.

Important new principles to guard against failures in the observance of signals are being worked out by the company in connection with this program. A new device has been designed which consists of electrically operated mechanism by which the indication given by wayside signals is duplicated in miniature within the engine cab keeping the indications continuously before the enginemen and firemen.

1,450 Engines Included

When the current program is completed approximately 1,450 engines will be equipped with the cab signals and other control devices, while the necessary electrical apparatus will be applied to 1,529 miles of track.

Engineering and transportation authorities credit the Pennsylvania Railroad with having been a leader in the perfecting and adoption of devices for increasing the train operation for more than half a century.

A final installation of an automatic train stop was made on the Pennsylvania Railroad as early as 1880. The Pennsy was the first to give Westinghouse a hearing and try out his air brake, which made quick stops possible, and thereby rendered high speed safe.

Since then, inventive genius has been incessantly at work perfecting the signal system.

smaller cities Troops are now patrolling the Palm Beaches and Miami

Two solid trains of tank cars carrying fresh water arrived at Miami last night and relieved a water shortage. Miami newspapers, their plants rendered useless by the hurricane, have been issuing brief bulletins from hand presses since Saturday to alleviate near panicky fears of residents as wild rumors would sweep the city according to word brought from Miami to West Palm Beach by courier then wired here. No communication by direct wire has been established with Miami since the storm struck although telephone and telegraph companies today reported that almost all wires to the rest of the state have been repaired

Planes Carry Aid

Eight airplanes left here yesterday for the storm district carrying newspapermen and doctors. High winds made their journeys hazardous. They have not been heard from since leaving. Newspapermen also accompanied the troop trains leaving here Orlando and Sanford yesterday. More than 600 troops will be patroling Miami West Palm Beach Fort Lauderdale and smaller lower coast cities by noon today and Governor Martin is prepared to call out more if necessary

Swinging over to the west coast through south central Florida the twister repeated the same havoc it wrought in Miami although the wind seemed to abate as the storm passed inland then out to the Gulf of Mexico near Fort Meyers

Heavy Sufferers

The little towns of Moorehaven Citrus City Clewiston and Hatty on the new Lake Okeechobee, were among the heaviest sufferers in central Florida. Word sent on railroad wires into Tampa stated that one hundred and forty lives were lost in the lower Lake Okeechobee district as the storm passed toward Fort Meyers on the Gulf of Mexico. Six feet of water covered a section of Moorehaven for a time

A relief train with troops aboard left Sanford last night for Moorehaven and other relief from Avon Park and Sebring north of Lake Okeechobee has also been dispatched

One City Cannot Be Reached By Land

Aboard the Florida Relief Train Sebring Fla Sept 20—Every soul in Florida who escaped the wrath of Saturday's hurricane was giving without stint today

Every city town and hamlet through which the relief train passed have contributed foodstuffs clothing first aid equipment have sent their doctors their nurses their undertakers. And all with a glad heart and a willing spirit. For Moorehaven that direly stricken Everglades city which can not be reached by land the train is carrying rafts and canoes to enable the relief workers and the supplies to get there

Included in the cargo are several hundred coffins sent from Tampa St Petersburg and other Florida cities

Scores of bodies have been seen lying beside the track and floating in the water

Water hyacinths cloak the wreckage of automobiles and buildings. Tangled in the debris are human bodies

Three hundred refugees were being brought to Sebring today

It is planned to establish a medical base at Sebring where bodies can be embalmed and the sick and wounded taken care of

"Horrible Sight" is Witnesses' Declaration

(Copyright 1926 by I N S)

Jacksonville Fla Sept 20—A city desolate but undaunted ready to rebuild as soon as all its injured are cared for and going about the work of rebuilding in a spirit of hope which can not be downed was the way a group of tired and haggard refugees who arrived on the first train from the devastated southeast coast of Florida described Miami here today

Hundreds were buried in the wreckage of buildings underneath heaps of debris" Harry Otto declared "The storm broke with such fury that it was like a bombardment in France

"Food is badly needed in Miami and all cities and communities south of West Palm Beach and the water situation at Miami is a serious problem which is being relieved by the shipment of tank cars from West Palm Beach" C P Hamrick of Dallen Ga declared

The only water available for drinking was rainwater and most of the population went breakfastless yesterday

No real looting has been reported and the state troops that were in this territory have the situation well in hand

"I do not believe that 1 000 lives on the lower Florida east coast is an exaggerated statement" said G A Keller of Philadelphia who arrived in Miami from Havana just before the hurricane struck. "It was the most horrible sight I have ever witnessed. I was literally blown into the Evergreen Hotel by the storm which started at 12 45 a m

Martial Law in Miami, Hollywood

Fort Pierce Fla Sept 20—Thirty thousand persons are homeless in Miami and 8 000 homeless in Hollywood today as result of the tropical hurricane which swept across southern Florida leaving death and disaster in its wake

Accurate figures on the number of dead and injured were not obtainable this morning but apparently reliable and conservative estimates place the number killed in Miami at 500 in Hialeah 200 and in Hollywood at 64

Hollywood, which is about 100 miles south of here is practically destroyed. The town was leveled by the storm, which started late Friday night and reached its highest intensity between 7 30 a m and 9 30 a m Saturday.

Martial law has been declared in Miami and Hollywood.

The extent of the property damage is enormous—in Miami alone it is estimated at $100,000,000 at least.

All of the stricken localities are in need of immediate help. Cities and towns hit by the storm are without water food light or sanitation. Improvised hospitals are everywhere

The authorities today were making a valiant effort to check up on the dead and injured and help restore conditions to normal. Looting was done last night and the authorities have taken precautions to see that this is not repeated

JOCKEYS FINED $350

Ashland Ky—After the running of the fifth race an event for two year olds, Jockeys A. Crump and A Ricketts got into a fight near the paddock owing to the fact that Vernon, ridden by Crump was knocked back when going strongly by Colleen O. ridden by Ricketts. For the interference Colleen O. which beat Junior's Nurse by half a length with Speedometer a head away, was disqualified. For engaging in the fight Crump was fined $250 and Ricketts $100, while the latter also was suspended for the rest of the meeting.

REPORTS FROM MISSING SHIPS RECEIVED TODAY

No Word Yet From S. S. President Harrison and S. S. Finland

New York Sept 20 Ships missing in the hurricane area off the Florida coast are reporting today

Eight vessels plying between New York and Florida ports had been missing but word from them began to flash in by radio to steamship offices here this morning

Word came that the S S Pawnee of the Clyde Line missed the storm and is safe in port at Jacksonville. The S S Cherokee of the same line reported she is at Charleston S C

No word has come however from the S S President Harrison of the Dollar Line and the S S Finland of the Panama Pacific Line. Both left Thursday for Havana

The United Fruit Co which operates numerous boats through the hurricane area told International News Service that so far as they know none of their vessels are missing

Fear had been expressed concerning the Lamport and Holt liner Vandyck which had been enroute from Buenos Aires and thought to have been in the path of the storm but radio dispatches this morning said she was safe and would arrive here Wednesday

Word was being awaited from the Santa Teresa headed for Christobal the Ulua enroute to Porto Rico and the Guantanamo headed for Santiago

None of the wireless companies received any advices of disaster to ships on the seas. This was interpreted as signifying that the violence of the hurricane spent itself on land rather than on the water

POSTPONEMENT OF GAS HEARING BEING SOUGHT

Attorneys From Marion and Other Ohio Cities File Motions with Commission

Postponement until Nov 1 of the hearing on protests filed against proposed increased gas rates for Marion and 71 other Ohio communities is likely as the result of motion filed today with the State Utilities Commission by City Solicitor Grant P Mouser, Jr, of this city and the solicitors of Bucyrus and Elyria. The hearing was originally set for September 28

Motions asking for the delay are based upon the request of the three solicitors that they be allowed more time for gathering data regarding the Logan Gas Co's receipts and expenses. This information is being collected and compiled under the direction of W. H Welsh of Cincinnati an expert in such matters

The Logan Gas Co is now collecting under the proposed schedule as a result of having filed a bond to guarantee refunds to consumers if the rates are finally ruled out. In case the cities making the fight are victorious refunds including six per cent interest, will total many thousands of dollars, municipal officials filing the protests state

City Solicitor Mouser, who was in Columbus last week arranging for the filing of the motions today, says that the hearing should be completed and a ruling obtained from the commission before January 1. There is likelihood, however, that the fight will be carried into court regardless of the outcome before the commission.

PRISONERS' ESCAPE ATTEMPT FRUSTRATED

Workhouse Superintendent Holds Five at Bay Until Guard Comes to Rescue

Canton, Sept. 20—Five prisoners who were recently sent to the workhouse for short terms are securely locked in cells today following their attempt at escape last night.

The men had dug a tunnel through the old brick wall and were emerging when discovered. Mrs. Boyer, wife of Superintendent John Boyer, grabbed a gun and held the prisoners at bay until a guard ran into the institution and locked all five prisoners in separate cells.

To Go to Supreme Court

Secretary of State Thad Brown has rejected the request of the officials of the Primary Defense league of which former State Senator [illegible] Burke of Elyria is president and James A White of Columbus former Ohio superintendent of the Anti Saloon league is secretary that the proposed state constitutional amendment providing for the modification of the state's primary election system be kept off the November election ballot Immediately following the action of the secretary of state it was announced that the Defense league would make appeal to the Ohio supreme court

Secretary of State Brown holds that due to court decisions he is without power to investigate the league's complaint stating that his duties relative to petition signatures are limited to seeing to it that a proper number of valid signatures are certified by the various county election boards before the proposal can be placed upon the ballot

The Primary Defense league's chief charges are that many signatures were copied out of directories by circulators that others were secured upon the representation that the petition was for a wet or dry referendum and that it contains many names of people long since dead among them being those of Napoleon Bonaparte P T Barnum and other celebrities of the past

We have no means of knowing the merits of any of the charges made but we question if the one upon which the greatest emphasis apparently is placed in newspaper headlines—that of fictitious names and the names of dead people—would influence any court provided there were the requisite number of valid signatures It is hardly probable that there has been a similar petition in years which has not carried such names generally the work of some self assumed joker If petitions are to be cast out on this ground it is easy to see how enemies of any petition might invalidate it by signing to it such names It is a possibility which must be faced in every referendum

We Are Growing Younger

An unusually interesting letter came to our attention a day or two ago—interesting not so much because of its subject matter but rather because of certain other matters which it served to call to mind Its even legible penmanship denoted strength and energy in every line Written in Quebec under date of September 15 to a local relative it said

I am thinking of you this morning and will write you a few lines that you may know where we are We came to Quebec yesterday from Montreal—a drive of about 200 miles I am feeling fine this morning and am writing while waiting for breakfast It is raining a little easy kind of a rain that I like only it is a little cold—but this house is nicely heated We are stopping at the Chateau Frontenac Service fine I hope every one I know is well I can not remember your street address so I guess I will send this to the old home address Kindest and best wishes and love forever—

A simple little letter this written by a Prospect woman who is making a 2,000 mile trip in her own car through the New England states and Canada She went far up into Maine before entering the Dominion at Montreal and then as she indicates followed the St Lawrence to the one time capital of what was once known as New France And after taking a 200 mile drive the day before she writes this letter while waiting for breakfast How many of us while traveling phone for our breakfast and then have either the inclination or the energy to write a letter while waiting for it? And this woman is eighty five years of age

One day last week mention was made in our news columns of the fact that Edward Durfee secretary of the Marion Building Savings and Loan company had attained his ninetieth milestone It was related that fifteen years ago he had been urged by members of his family to get out of intimate touch with business affairs and spend the remainder of his life in rest and recreation Yet at ninety he is active in the management of one of the largest and most important financial institutions of the city

To Dr Osler was attributed the remark that a man was out of things at forty and should be chloroformed at sixty The doctor never said it but no doubt there were many at the time who were inclined to believe that one who had gone much beyond the half century mark was old and beyond the stage of usefulness Admittedly thirty or forty years ago the great majority of people of fifty and upward were old but it was largely due to the fact that they thought they were They dressed older they thought older they felt older than people of the same age do today But they hadn't lost their usefulness they only thought they had It is a significant fact that many of those who were fifty two score years ago and are in life today or lived to attain years far beyond man's alloted three score and ten did not suffer this delusion They demonstrated that one route to longevity is to continue in our business activities our professional activities or whatever that activity may be in which we are engaged It is thus that we have thousands of people who are up in years who possess the qualities of usefulness They attained their extreme years because they did not permit themselves to become inactive and rust out

It may be taken as a general rule the exceptions to which are rare that we must take an active part in life's activities—at least an active interest in life's activities—if we are to attain years beyond the ordinary

We have been coming along during the past forty years We have added to the span of life Science and medicine have done much in bringing about this result They have spared us many ills overcome many others Through them we have learned how better to care for ourselves This has added to the span of life beyond all question But perhaps a greater factor has been the change within ourselves We dress and think and feel younger than did those of generations past with the result that we are younger We are taking more interest in life's affairs keeping ourselves up to date and abreast with the times In a word we are learning the way long followed by this Prospect woman of eighty five who has kept young in heart whose Service fine is to us the most significant thing in her letter

It has been many a day since any woman or girl has justly been charged with being overdressed

Of course if southern Italy is so incensed over our refusal to admit its people into this country in excess of its quota that it beats up our vice consuls the proper thing to do is to keep them out altogether We have far too many of its gangsters as it is

Who knows? Tennessee having acquired so much fame by combating the theory that man descended from the ape the more recent theory that the ape descended from man may impel some state to rush to the defense of the ape

The executor of the late E W Scripps multimillionaire publisher states that the personal estate of the decedent in Ohio was insolvent and that neither the state nor Butler county where Mr Scripps kept a home will receive inheritance taxes that against assets of $1,032,000 in this state there are liabilities estimated at $1,653,000 Very graciously the executor refrains from making demand that the state of Ohio make the decedent's Ohio estate whole

Mr Mellon is safely back from his European trip and if any sharper took advantage of his innocense and sold him the Louvre the Doge's palace or something along that line for a song it is apparent that the story escaped the dock reporters

If that Indian guide sees fit to sue Jim Stillman for $500,000 for damage he alleges has been done to his reputation even though that figure seems a trifle high for a reputation as reputations go these days and lets it go at that it's no affair of ours But what troubles us is the possibility that the suit may be a mere preliminary to a break in on vaudeville or the movies

President Coolidge You Should Have Seen the One That Got Away!

Kidney Stone a Cause of Colic

BY ROYAL S COPELAND M D
United States Senator from New York
Former Commissioner of Health New York City

Sedentary occupations have their peculiar health hazards One of them is kidney obstruction or accumulation called stone or calculus or concretion Instead of remaining in the solution and being carried along by the kidney current the solid materials accumulate in the cavity of the kidney

Lack of exercise laziness and sedentary occupation predispose to this trouble Office workers accountants bookkeepers stenographers business men much at the desk and especially wine drinkers and heavy eaters are apt to be affected

At first the concretions are small like sand When a bit larger they are called gravel

If particles of sandlike substance appear in the urine as it is passed and if at the same time there is dull pain in the loin you must suspect kidney stone This diagnosis will be confirmed if blood is seen in the urine

Connecting each kidney with the bladder is a narrow tube about eight inches long called the ureter When a calculus the size of a pea or bean or larger begins its passage through one of the ureters it is easy to see why the pain is excessive This is kidney colic or renal colic

The attack of colic comes suddenly The patient may awaken from sleep with the pain It may appear after lifting or violent exercise A tennis player is sometimes caught in the midst of a game A hod carrier may be attacked as he climbs the ladder

The pain is felt first in the loin or groin It extends to the back and abdomen The suffering becomes intense There may be fainting nausea and vomiting The face is bathed in perspiration The pulse falls and the patient collapses

There are other troubles that give similar symptoms For instance intestinal colic may be quite as severe and quite like renal or kidney colic

You may be called upon by a distracted neighbor to help care for some person thus afflicted The doctor will be sent for of course In the meantime there are some measures of possible value

Get the patient into a hot bath running the water in as hot as he can bear On apply hot water compresses Hot drinks are comforting

Try placing the patient in different positions Some particular posture may relieve

Capsicum vaseline applied over the abdomen and the parts then covered with a hot towel may help

The worst thing about renal colic is that it is likely to recur One attack is but the beginning Until the original trouble is removed the victim is never quite safe from the danger of a recurrence

The diet and habits of the patient must be regulated He must give up rich highly seasoned and indigestible food Exercise fresh air and all the natural methods for building up health must be employed

Cecil Rhodes one of the greatest empire explorers and builders the world has ever known had a big idea when he created the Rhodes scholarships in Oxford university He made it possible for a number of American boys to go to England each year and have the advantage of travel contact with other minds and with the educational machinery of a great university

No one nation has a monopoly on the high methods of education Americans have much to learn from the older schools of England Young men who come back with their degrees from Oxford have something to give America

Kettering head of the research laboratories of General Motors says the biggest difficulty he has in carrying on research work is the common habit of men to depend too much on their own experience

Congress will face no more important question in the next session than the development of commercial aviation There is every reason to promote the manufacture and use of aeroplanes for commercial purposes We shall be building for the pursuits of peace and at the same time preparing for war if we ever have to have it Primarily building fleets of aeroplanes is not militaristic

Germany has an idea about schools Germany has had many ideas about schools There is one over there now in which the pupils deliver the lectures They run themselves They take care of their own discipline The school is for pupils who have special talent

Giving a special chance to those who have the intellectual equipment to take it is a big idea It is being done now in American schools Out of such a system will come the leaders of the nation

Vagrant Verse.

DIDO

Men have called Dido beautiful
I call her wise
She knew that only dregs were left
Love's lovely lies
Love with its agony of joy
Its thrill of pain
Over between her and the sun
Gray sheets of rain

That flames could never be so hot
I think she knew
As tears shed for him lengthening
Each night to two
That flames could never hurt her now
Like the long day
For eyes to pierce the distant sky
Where Latium lay

She would have stumbled over the fields
Some purple night
To fill with cries the lonely cave
Once her delight
She would have thrilled to every sail
That sailed the sea
Knowing full well it never was
Nor would be he

So at his leave she threw herself
Upon the pyre
Let the hot flames consume her heart's
Unquenched desire
She knew that only dregs were left
Love's lovely lies
Men have called Dido beautiful
I call her wise

Bill Burnholme and Yvonne glided [illegible] Yvonne [illegible] against the [illegible] shoulder [illegible] Cecily [illegible]

"Isn't she [illegible]" Jock absently "Aren't [illegible] going to tell me Cecily"

[illegible] he could [illegible] the [illegible] with the sharp [illegible] of [illegible] of [illegible] and Jock said hurriedly "Listen here Cecily Yvonne and I do our stuff in just a minute And listen don't think [illegible] remember [illegible] a month from now I'll be doing something different— nothing a lot more to be proud of"

This was all he had time for Bill and Yvonne joined them and the four some went back to [illegible] table Jock with the conviction that he had sounded silly and accomplished nothing

Ten minutes later he and Yvonne were on [illegible]

The [illegible] was [illegible] bright [illegible] It [illegible] him [illegible] humidity [illegible] around him so that he [illegible] himself ridiculously [illegible] figure [illegible] light there was [illegible] of the [illegible] like [illegible] tered blossoms He saw Cecily's face and Bill's blurry with distance and he was full of an awful certainty that both [illegible] were amused [illegible] scornful

He had never felt more awkward nor more miserable His embarrassment and stage fright attendant on his debut at the Tavern had been as nothing compared with this He could feel perspiration what he fancied must be a veritable torrent of perspiration—on his forehead He could feel slow [illegible] in the traitorous inches between the back of his collar and the [illegible] of his hair And when he knelt in the hush that followed the [illegible] round of his applause his knee cracked making what seemed to him a deafening report

He began to play

He believed he had never played worse but in reality he played quite as usual his fingers [illegible] on the strings Yvonne beside him sang a little [illegible] song "What Makes [illegible] Like Me Know" He was conscious of the [illegible] her back of the [illegible] her [illegible] body [illegible] gesture [illegible] adapted to the [illegible] of her audience And [illegible] let [illegible] in a frenzy of self [illegible] A man who let the girl he was going to marry sand in a public place and cross [illegible] for the delight of the [illegible] right [illegible] think of that

They [illegible] three numbers and when they had finished there occurred an incident unprecedented in their Tavern experience somebody threw money at them

There were bowing hand in hand and a disc of silver came spinning over the floor stilling at their feet then another and another Jock [illegible] wild eyes [illegible] the generosity located it as a ringside table around which was assembled a [illegible] party [illegible] One of the six was [illegible] slumber gripping the neck of a bottle in an [illegible] His companions were very much awake They had shifted their chairs so as to face the entertainers and they [illegible] crossing their corpulent shins and whistled and catcalled and [illegible] their cigars Their hands alternately whacked at [illegible] and delved into their pockets

Jock found himself noting details with a peculiar [illegible] precision The diamond on one man's little finger The three wisps of hair brushed [illegible] the [illegible] of a second The stubble of beard on the chin of a third

Other groups were following the example of the inspired quintet Coins whizzed thick and fast Fifty cent pieces Quarters Dimes A dollar hurled by a fabulous maiden who made a great [illegible] and cry about it standing up and flexing her arm like a baseball pitcher

This took place in a mere few seconds But it seemed to Jock that it had all begun exceedingly long ages ago It seemed to him that ever since he could remember he had stood there a target for [illegible] small change like a street singer or a beggar or an organ grinder's monkey—while Cecily watched The thing would have been painful in any case under the circumstances it was tragic He wanted to shrink to nothing to become invisible to be swallowed by a yawning floor He wanted in short all the things that shamefaced sufferers want and that no kindly deity ever vouchsafes

"Give them another" Yvonne whispered in his ear "We'll have to Hypnotize Mama or anything—" He looked down and saw that she was genuinely merry almost laughing "My God she thinks this is funny" he told himself

Mechanically he knelt again and struck opening chords while the spectators settled back to listen and the shower of metal slackened ceased altogether "Hypnotizin' Mama" verse once chorus once repeat verse repeat chorus twice This was the formula and he followed it through force of habit then rose and clasped Yvonne's hand in his damp one and bowed again

Yvonne was giving him further [illegible] directions under cover of the clapping "Pick up that money Jock Hamill You've got to! Doesn't matter what you do with it but pick it up And for pity's sake look pleasant!"

The moments during which he trotted about scratching silver out of the dust and hearing it patter into the inverted hollow of his banjo were the most ghastly he had ever known or even wished to know He carried with him as he moved a mental cinema of himself— [illegible] photographed from Cecily's angle wherein he appeared the sorriest possible spectacle He had no idea of course that all the women in the room Cecily included found him appealing and very lovable in his discomfiture

When the last [illegible] was lifted he took Yvonne's arm walked resolutely to the platform with the banjo held straight out before him like a church collection box and sought to keep it hidden

Quicksands of Love

BY ADELE GARRISON

I think that [illegible] expected me to open the [illegible] concerning [illegible] at the restaurant but I have [illegible] at [illegible] silently waiting for him to speak when there is an argument [illegible] felt [illegible] there was at this [illegible] him the [illegible] of looking at him I kept my finger [illegible] with the [illegible] myself to resume my work when I should have [illegible]

He let [illegible] opposite me [illegible] quick sharp glance at me and drew [illegible] a cigarette

"May I smoke" he asked with the courtesy which [illegible] punctiliously uses [illegible] anticipate [illegible] often have reflected upon this [illegible] of his with the almost [illegible] of which he is guilty when he [illegible] one of his [illegible] but womanlike [illegible] the [illegible] of the former [illegible] his boorishness

"Of course" I returned smiling He held up the cigarette [illegible] and looked at it for a long second as if he were [illegible] some fancied flaw But I knew that in reality he did not see it at all Finally however he lit it drew a few puffs and then looking carefully at the end of it instead of at me he asked with elaborate casualness

"How long are you tied up with Veritzen"

It was the first time that he had had any reference to my contract with the great [illegible] following his rather [illegible] reception of my news that I was to do the historical research work for the new [illegible] I knew that there was something behind the apparently casual question and braced myself for it even as I answered him

"For a year's contract and the option of another year"

He pursed his lips and whistled with the air of one who must offer an unwelcome comment

"That's a long time Do you think it was wise to tie yourself down for so long Of course he gives you a thundering good salary—if I understood [illegible] correctly the sum Lillian named—" he looked at me inquiringly

ACID STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

SUFFERERS FROM INDIGESTION OR STOMACH TROUBLE CUT THIS OUT

Stomach trouble dyspepsia indigestion sourness gas heartburn food fermentation etc, are caused nine times in ten by chronic acid stomach" says a well known authority

Burning hydrochloric acid develops in the stomach at an alarming rate The acid irritates and inflames the delicate stomach lining and often leads to gastritis accompanied by dangerous stomach ulcers Don't dose an acid stomach with pepsin or artificial digestants that only give temporary relief from pain by driving the sour ferment ing food out of the stomach into the intestines

Instead neutralize or sweeten your acid stomach after meals with a little hot water and Bisurated Magnesia and not only will the pain vanish but your meals will digest naturally There is nothing better than Bisurated Magnesia to sweeten and settle an acid stomach It soaks up the harmful excess acid much as a sponge or blotting and pleasant to use is not a laxative paper might and your stomach acts and feels fine in just a few minutes Bisurated Magnesia can be obtained from any reliable druggist in either powder or tablet form It is safe reliable easy and is not at all expensive —Adv

A novel costume which seems to be a combination of mannish suit and some very feminine attributes is pictured here. The finely pleated skirt is gold tone and there is a masculine looking vest also of golden hue.

The brocaded dinner jacket is a turquoise blue the skirt part of the jacket being given a fullness that reminds one of the oldtime panniers. A turban to match the coat completes the costume.

and more. It kills gypsy and brown tail moths and the agricultural department reports it has been found attacking at least 92 species of native insects. Larvae of the satin moth has been found to have been parasitized as much as 75 per cent by this efficient and versatile control agent.

FRUIT growers in California driven almost to despair by the scale that attacks peach and other trees found that the humble little ladybug that children advise to fly away home devours the scale and will destroy it.

Little by little science learns which are man's enemies which his friends. Then he uses his insect friends to fight his crop enemies.

If only we would do as much for ourselves. Too often we cannot tell our real friends from our most dangerous enemies.

Often those we call friends and that mean to be our friends are our dangerous enemies. A friend for instance that offers you bootleg whisky tells you not to work so hard urges you to stay up late or leads you into extravagance—that friend is as harmful to you as the boll weevil to a cotton field.

A FRIEND that praises you when he ought to criticize is your enemy. So is the man that encourages you to believe that your troubles begin not within yourself where they really do begin but that they are due to your lack of luck or to the fault of someone else.

Plants have their enemies that devour them and ruin crops. Human beings have worse parasites that prevent their producing what they might produce. The worst parasites are conceit idleness lack of self control feeble will power and the friend who tells you "You are all right" when you are far from it.

He is your worst enemy although he may mean well and dangerous if you believe him.

COUE'S DEATH ENDS CULT IN AUSTRIA

Vienna Sept 20—The death of M Emile Coue the great exponent of auto suggestion has been the death of his cult in Austria. The French psychologist had hardly been dead a week when the two Coue societies of the capital decided that the death of the Master at sixty three was too heavy a blow for the tenets of the cult and disbanded. Not however before urging members to practice modified Coueism within the home especially among children but to send for the doctor when needed.

Coueism became popular in Austria four years ago and at one time the societies had almost 20,000 members. Lately it had dropped to half.

NEW OXYGEN HELMET AIDS FRENCH AVIATORS

Paris Sept 20—French aviators are likely to retain the laurels as holders of the world's record for altitude thanks to a recent invention of an oxygen helmet by Doctor Garsaux doctor in charge of the aerial port of Paris Le Bourget.

Rarity of the atmosphere at high altitudes has been the principal obstacle to high flying. The helmet of Doctor Garsaux utilizes a liquid supply of oxygen which can be turned on at twenty thousand feet and which it is expected will enable flights to be made at thirty thousand feet. Greater speed can be made at this height as the air offers less resistance.

Apparently there are more bad laws than there are bad people.

BRILLIANTS HOLD SILK DRAPERIES OF VELVET GOWNS

In the showings of the new fall and winter fashions no material is more prominent than velvet. Pictured here is a fascinating evening dress which is made of rose Lyons velvet dotted with brilliants.

The surplice effect is used for a front closing of this frock with a vestee and shirring is used to make the full [illegible] draping on the skirt a star of brilliants holding the drapings at the front of the waist. Brilliants also edge this drapery and brilliant buckles hold the bodice fullness on the shoulders.

LOANS up to $500

A little booklet came into our hands recently entitled "Misers of Time." We have all heard of misers of money and most of us will agree that being a money miser is nothing to be proud of. After reading "Misers of Time" we are convinced that this is the kind of a miser everybody wants to be. He is the fellow who makes a business of saving time—the stuff that life is made of.

You can save time by coming at once to The City Loan when you want to borrow money. No use to spend your valuable time hunting around because you just can't beat it. The City Loan has become popular in a great many homes by simply helping its borrowing customers save their time and energy, which is a big contribution toward happiness.

THE PILGRIM MOTHER

A statue to the Pilgrim Mother was recently erected at Plymouth Rock, Mass. Through her we honor every pioneer woman who endured privation and hardships that a nation might live. Shoulder to shoulder with her husband she built a home in the wilderness and reared her sturdy sons and daughters. She cooked and sewed. She spun and wove for her growing family. When they were ill she brewed potent remedies from roots and herbs—such roots and herbs as are now used in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.—Adv.

KENTON BEATS ASHLEY TWO GAMES SUNDAY

Ferner Lets Delaware County Team Get Lone Hit in First Tilt

Kenton, Sept 20—Repeating their performance of one week ago, the Kenton Reds baseball club beat the Ashley nine in a double header here Sunday afternoon.

The first contest ended in an 8 to 0 shut out victory for the Reds while in the second tilt the locals won 8 to 2.

The outstanding feature of the two games Sunday was the performance of Ray Ferner, lengthy right handed twirler of the Reds. Appearing in the opening tilt Ferner let the visiting club down with but one lone hit, a weak single just over first base. Just one week ago Ferner pitched a double header winning both games against the Radnor A. C.'s.

In the second game yesterday with the score two all in the sixth Ferner was sent in as a pinch hitter after the Reds had two men on base. His long drive for two bases cinched the game for his team.

POOR SEED CAUSE OF ONION CROP LOSS

Conditions on Scioto Marsh Investigated, Offers to Refund Money Made

Kenton, Sept 20—Reports from the east Scioto marsh district, west of here, indicate that many onion growers this fall suffered heavy losses in their crops as the result of poor seed sown in the spring.

With the harvesting of the crop now under way, instances have been reported where the onions instead of bulbing and ripening have grown to tops only and contain from three to four hearts. Where this condition exists the crop will not pay for harvesting.

Lloyd Stalter of the Nigger Island district reported that twenty two acres of onions on his farm are a practical loss as the result of poor seed.

Representatives of seed firms supplying the growers with much of their seed were investigating conditions the past week it was stated, and made offers to refund the money paid for the worthless seed. The average expense put in the crop, growers state, will reach nearly $50 per acre.

Athletics Win and Lose to Akron's Swinehart Tires

Uncrowned Champs Tighten and Win Second Game, 2-3, After Giving First Away

Rubber City Champions Take Early Lead in First Game and Win 7 to 1; Main Knocked Out of Box; Reese Pitches Good Ball For Marion; Ewing Twirls Both Games For Visitors

BY PAT MURPHY

THE Marion Athletics broke even in a double header with the Swinehart Tires of Akron at Lincoln Park Sunday afternoon. The visitors took the opener by the lop-sided score of 7 to 1. Marion came back in the second game and won, 3 to 2. The two games were easily the best that have been played at the north end grounds this season. The first game was all Akron. They got to Main, Marion's ace, early, and sent him to the bench at the end of the third inning, after he had walked three men, issued a single and a home run.

Home runs by Harris, Conroy and Eistelman, 2, were features.

In the first inning, Main looked as though he were going to pitch one of his usual good games. The first man up, Harris, flied to Tommy Dougherty, who was covering third. Leonard and Dalrymple grounded out, Bacon to Conley. In the second inning, however, Main was saved only by fast fielding on the part of his mates. He walked Rudy, first up, but Cool hit a grounder at Main, who threw to Donaldson, covering second. Rex got it over to Joe Conroy in time to complete a fast double play. Hartline, next up, walked. He stole second, then took too big a lead and was run down between second and third by Bacon, Donaldson and Dougherty, Bacon making the putout.

In the third, Main struck out Ruttman, first to face him. He then walked Tedrow, who went to second on Ewing's hit to Price. He thought he could stretch it a little, and was caught at third by Price's perfect throw to Dougherty. Ewing stayed on first while Main was pitching three balls to Harris. The first one that was near the plate, Harris lifted over the left field wall, scoring Ewing ahead of him. Leonard then drew Main's fifth free ticket to first, but was left stranded when Dalrymple lifted a fly to Dougherty. Manager Bacon thought that this was enough, so called on Chet Sharrock to finish where Main left off.

Chet pitched a good game, but the Akron boys had on their hitting clothes and would not be denied. They scored again in the fifth. Hartline walked, and was sacrificed to second by Ruttman. He took a long lead off second and when Sharrock threw to Bacon to catch him, thought he could make third. When he got there Dougherty was waiting with the ball. Tedrow hit to left, and stole second, turning his ankle when he slid under Bacon. Elliott went in to run for Tedrow, and was safe at third when Donaldson tried to catch him on Ewing's roller. He scored when Harris hit past third. Leonard then walked, and he and Ewing were left when Dalrymple hit down the first base line.

In the seventh, Sharrock struck out Ewing. Then Eitselman proved that Tedrow's injury was more of a casualty for Marion than for his own team. He lifted the first ball pitched over the left field wall. Two more runs were scored in this inning on hits by Harris and Leonard and Dougherty's error on Rudy's hot liner. Another run crossed the pan in the ninth on a single by Harris, his fourth hit of the game, a double by Leonard and a single by Dalrymple.

Marion's lone tally came in the lucky (?) seventh. Price hit a hot one to center field. Conroy followed him with a double, advancing Glen to third. He scored on Colegrove's hit to right. That was the end of the game for Marion. Dougherty and Brashear lifted flies and Sharrock was out, third to first.

Second Game Better

The second game was faster and better. Ewing thought he was good enough to beat Marion again, and Reese, late of Bucyrus, was chosen by Manager Bacon to show him his mistake. This game was close all the way, and the large crowd of fans stuck in their seats until the last man was out.

Marion started in to win in the first inning. Rowan picked out one of Ewing's fast ones and tried hard to put it over the left field fence. In going after the ball, Left Fielder Hartline hit his head against the fence, sustaining a hurt that forced him to quit after that inning. Rowan took three bases on his hit. Donaldson dropped one in front of the plate which took a peculiar bounce and hit Rex as he was on his way to first, putting him out. Bacon and Price walked. Conroy flew out to center field, Rowan scoring after the catch. Colegrove flew out to center.

Marion scored again in the fourth when Joe Conroy lifted one over the fence after Price had been retired on a foul fly.

Akron tied the score in the sixth. Ruttman got on when Dougherty juggled his grounder. Eitselman hit his second homer of the day over the left field fence. That was all the scoring Akron did.

Marion put the winning run across in the eighth after Rowan struck out and Donaldson flied to center, giving Leonard his ninth put out of the game. Bacon tried hard to get one of Jimmy Russo's dollars, but the best he could do was a single through the box. However, Price got one by sending a hot single through second base, scoring Bacon with what proved to be the winning run. Conroy ended the inning by flying to left.

Leonard, centerfielder for Akron, easily took the individual fielding honors in this game. As a ball hawk, his equal has not been seen in Marion this year. He was all over the outfield. He had nine putouts, while his first baseman had but five.

Reese pitched a good game all the way as did Ewing. The latter yielded seven hits in each game, but Marion was able to make the hits count to better advantage in the nightcap.

Two big crowds saw the games. One crowd paid for tickets and went in through the gate. Nearly as big a crowd showed their sportsmanship by backing autos up to the fence and stretching their necks to see the game for nothing.

The Mendel Tailors will meet the Athletics next Sunday. There will be but one game, called at 2:30.

POORMAN'S GET EASY REVENGE FROM GALION

Indians Leave Field When Locals Take Nine-Run Lead

Poorman's fast garage team from this city easily defeated the Galion Indians, 12 to 3, Sunday at Seccaium Park.

Geller pitched effectively for the winners while Galion's hurlers were almost helpless against the local sluggers.

Poorman's are scheduled to play the next game Sunday at Lincoln Park with the Ohio State Reformatory nine from Mansfield. Poorman's defeated the Reformatory boys 7 to 6 Labor Day at Seccaium Park. The Poorman Reformatory game will be preceded by a kittenball game between the Anthony Cleaners and the Mansfield Daily Journal's All Stars.

DEMPSEY INSURES PROTECTION NOW

New York, Sept. 20—Taking precaution against bodily harm—possibly by gunmen—Jack Dempsey, has ordered six picked men from a local detective agency rushed to his training camp at Atlantic City, it was reported here today.

At present, Dempsey is guarded by four of the "hardest" detectives in the country. Two of these are Sergeant Johnny Broderick and "Happy Jack" Smith, members of New York's famous "strong arm" squad.

TUNNEY PLACES CONFIDENCE IN HIS RIGHT MIT

Challenger Watches Other Champions Fall With Much Interest

Stroudsburg, Pa., Set. 20p—The frequency with which the more or less majestic knobs of sportdom's sovereigns are being lopped off may portend success for Gene Tunney in that affair in Philadelphia on Thursday, but the challenger for Jack Dempsey's title is paying small heed to such immaterial things as hunches.

He is but mildly interested in the downfall of Bobby Jones and Bill Tilden and he refuses to become wrought up when told that Dempsey is to be the third member of the athletic royalty to grovel in defeat this month.

"If Dempsey is to be beaten, my good right hand and my splendid condition will bring about his defeat," Gene said.

"I can't hit him on his whiskers with an omen."

Still the boys around the camp point to the fact that every ring champion who held office on Jan. 1, except Labarba, who has no opposition; Rosenberg, who has not placed his title in jeopardy, and Dempsey has been dethroned. Kaplan gave up the featherweight title; Kansas blew the lightweight championship; Walker was outgalloped by Latzo; Greb was defeated by Deacon Flowers, and Delaney outbelted Berlenbach.

"Here's Dempsey putting up his gilded derby," they contended, "and Tunney's going to knock him from under it. It is in the cards."

Tunney is in perfect fettle. No boxer ever stepped into a ring in finer physical condition than Gene Tunney is in right now and will be in on Thursday. He is in no danger of going stale and he is in no danger of missing razor edge. He has been superb in his workouts on Friday, Saturday and yesterday. Never an impressive showman in the gymnasium ring, he is nevertheless shown himself to the experienced eye to be in the best shape of his entire life.

THERE'LL BE NO SECOND BELL IN BIG HEAVY BOUT

Dempsey Is Angered and Becomes Ugly and Mean

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 20—"Never mind getting upset, there'll never be a second bell in this fight with Tunney."

The speaker was Jack Dempsey and the remark was made Saturday at a pow-wow, the details of which have just come to light today.

When Dempsey learned that Kearns had started some legal proceedings against him here on Saturday, he went to Gene Normile, his manager. Normile was angered and launched a bitter tirade against Kearns.

"Kearns has done everything that a human can do to try to get you upset and get your mind so worried about this legal stuff that you might not be able to keep it on the fight," Normile said.

Dempsey's answer came with his unfailing smile.

"Sure, that's what Kearns is really aiming to do," he replied. "He wants me to lose because he figures if I blow the title in this fight, he then can tell the folks that he was the boy who kept me a champion. He doesn't want me to win because it would show how little I ever did need him."

No Second Bell

Dempsey put a hand on Normile's shoulder and with the smile gone from his face, said:

"Just to prove to you and to prove to the world how little this thing is upsetting me, I'll make you the promise that for this fight there'll never be the need of a second round bell. In some of the fights in my career, I've been content to hammer a man down gradually and win without too much effort.

"Outside the Firpo fight and the Willard fight, I never let go with punches that carried everything I had in them. But this fight—well this will be different. When the bell rings, I am going out after Tunney and if he is up on his feet when the first round is over, then I'll be more surprised than I ever have been in my life."

Unconcerned About Suit

Dempsey seems unconcerned about the suit which Kearns filed and which resulted in Dempsey being declared a temporary bankrupt and barred from leaving the state. Kearns demanded an accounting of all the money Dempsey received during the life time of their three-year contract from Aug. 3, 1923, until Aug. 3, 1926. To insure appearance in court Tuesday, Dempsey was required to post a $100,000 bond. The champion's last public workout was to be staged here this afternoon. The main part of the program called for shadow boxing and bag punching.

"I'm about in shape now," said Dempsey. "From now on, as through the past few days, it's just a case of coasting along and holding my condition."

ST. LOUIS KEEPS NATIONAL LEAD; YANKS ARE SAFE

Reds Can Even National Race in Boston Double-Header

New York, Sept. 20—The St. Louis Cardinals led Cincinnati by only one game in the National League race this morning having lost to the Giants yesterday while the Reds were idle. St. Louis is not scheduled today, however, and Cincinnati can go into a tie for first place by winning both games of a double-header from Boston.

The Yankees, fortified by a lead of three and one-half games, play a double-header with the White Sox today. As a result of their victory over Cleveland in the final game of the series yesterday, the Yanks can clinch the pennant by winning five of the remaining eight games.

Having polished off the Pirates, and the Reds, the Giants trimmed St. Louis, 6 to 5, and cut the Cardinals' lead to one game. The Giants pounded Haines to a pulp but the Cardinals would have won but for an error by O'Farrell and poor base running by Hafey.

The Yanks came to life and pounded out an 8 to 3 victory over Cleveland, stretching their lead to three and one-half games. Gehrig clouted three doubles and a home run and Ruth got his forty-third homer of the season.

Brooklyn made five errors and handed Pittsburgh a game, 7 to 4. The Pirates trail St. Louis by five games.

For the second day in succession, Ty Cobb broke up a game with a pinch hit. His wallop in the ninth gave the Tigers an 8 to 7 victory over Washington.

Thomas pitched the White Sox to their sixth straight victory, beating Boston, 6 to 3, and sweeping the series.

The Browns nosed out the Athletics in the tenth, 5 to 4. Rice had a perfect day at bat with four hits.

COLUMBUS SCHOOLS UNITE

Marysville, O.—On account of Trade High of Columbus uniting with Central High of that city, the football game scheduled for Oct. 1 between Trade and Marysville has been cancelled. Coach Kingsmore states that he would like to book a game for that date in order to fill the schedule.

Dabster and Jane H. Make Great Fights to Finish Two Races in Money Class

Three Running Events Are Won by Huzzes, Oaks and High Geer Who Outclass Large Field in Closing of Four Day Speed Program

NOTHING less than brilliant was the work of Dabster, the Standard Auto Parts entry from this city, which had to come back with the heat winners to decide the winner of the 2:20 Pace and second event on Saturday's Marion County Fair race program. Dabster won the first heat, General Admiral took the second and Jane H., was the winner of the third. Jane H. made a wonderful showing in the fourth heat against the winner while General Admiral broke and never finished.

Yankee Girl, Ralph Sprinkle's entry from Hillsboro, won the first event of the afternoon by taking three straight heats. Black Light, Springfield entry, finished second in each heat.

The Derby events were won by Huzzes, Oak and High Geer, some of the most active horses seen on the local track in years. Fans will, no doubt, be glad to see them return.

Saturday's Derby Day events, the last of the Marion County Fair's four day speed program were well attended by fans who remained at the track until the last heat was announced. This statement alone proves the interest in the Derby Day meet.

Purses here this year totaled $7,775, or more, and many of the best horses from Ohio and neighboring states were entered. Local horses did better Saturday than any previous day.

CARDINALS ARE FAVORITES IN NATIONAL RACE

Yankees Lead and May Cinch American Flag Soon

By DAVIS J. WALSH

New York Sept 20—Maybe the Yankees are "in" at last, maybe an American League pennant that was as good as won in mid August can be clinched in late September now that this unsparing New York outfit enjoys a 3½ game lead with only eight games to play. But the greatest race in the history of the National League probably will send the Cardinals and Reds right on down to the wire, running jowl to jowl, with the ultimate showdown coming in Cincinnati next Sunay when the two contenders must face each other for the last time.

The writer hapens to like the Cardinals, in spite of the fact that they must travel the rougher road to the pennant. They have five games more to play and two of them are with the Giants, who yesterday brought the Cards back to their field by pulling out a six to five decision over Mr. Hornsby's favorite ball club.

Previously, the Giants had aided in the obsequies that marked the passing of the Pittsburgh Pirates and only the day before they beat the Reds at a most critical moment in the race, so the New York club can't be overlooked as a serious hurdle for the Cardinals, in the last week of the race.

The Reds, meantime, will be fattening on the two tail-enders, the Phils and Braves and before the end of the current week, the Cards' one game lead may have evaporated into thin air or, at least, it may be no greater than it is today.

I favor the Cards for three reasons, one of which is the single game lead aforementioned. This places the burden of proof right on the Reds as any handicap must. But like the Cards, also, because they are the better ball club and because they seem to have that unconscious something that one must associate with a pennant winner.. The Cardinals look the part.

LUCKY STRIKE
"IT'S TOASTED"
CIGARETTES

If judged only by comparison of tobaccos, Lucky Strikes would be the best on the market.

They contain the world's finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged and perfectly blended.

But beyond that is an extra process—toasting—which gives them real distinction, making them indeed superior.

In smoking Lucky Strikes, you will find:

1. Finer Flavor. Toasting for 45 minutes develops the hidden flavors of the world's finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos.
2. Smoothness. Toasting for 45 minutes removes all "bite" and harshness, hence never any throat irritation.
3. Freshness. Then the tobacco is suddenly chilled. This seals the flavor in and insures constant freshness.

To attain these unique results, extra money is spent to give you added pleasure. This added effort brings extra goodness which accounts for the growing popularity of Luckies.

[illegible] when Uncle Wiggily [illegible] through the woods [illegible] two of his [illegible] came to a place [illegible] was covered with [illegible] some round like [illegible] shaped like mother's [illegible]

[illegible] at the chestnuts [illegible] cried

[illegible] chestnuts and take them [illegible] Bristytail the [illegible] Fumble falling [illegible] so often that he [illegible] their name But he [illegible] when he fell that's [illegible]

[illegible] two [illegible] began filling [illegible] the brown nuts [illegible] her two little play [illegible] Uncle Wiggily who [illegible] to Bumble and Fumble [illegible]

[illegible] chestnuts they are [illegible] they do look like chest [illegible] chestnuts are different [illegible] they are sweeter and of [illegible] Though Johnnie and [illegible] like these acorns they would [illegible] chestnuts But [illegible] the pigs [illegible]

[illegible] all take all we can carry [illegible] He and his brother filled [illegible] with the acorns Uncle [illegible] some of the other [illegible] and girls might like [illegible] brown acorns [illegible] pockets Then they [illegible] the hollow stump bun[illegible]

[illegible] was just feeling a bit [illegible] he had not found an adven[illegible] when he saw Aunt Let[illegible] going into his bun[illegible]

[illegible] Aunt Lettie will tell me [illegible] adventure thought [illegible] gentleman as he went in [illegible] through the kitchen and [illegible] the table I'll ask

[illegible] of the front room where [illegible] was sitting he heard the [illegible]

[illegible] heard so much about [illegible] waffles you make Mrs [illegible] the pig [illegible] about them Of course [illegible] for the word he so bold [illegible] to bake me some waffles [illegible] happened to be making [illegible] children you know while [illegible] love one with [illegible] and maple syrup on it [illegible] makes lovely waffles [illegible] Wiggily who was [illegible] They are [illegible] sure she is going to [illegible] Aunt Lettie? I'll start [illegible] she will bake you some [illegible]

[illegible] was so excited that he [illegible] wife trying to step [illegible] a chair He did [illegible] to whisper No [illegible] not the last atter [illegible] laughed and said [illegible] the loveliest waf[illegible] to the kitchen my [illegible] and I will make Aunt [illegible] and when his wife not to be impolite to company followed him she said quickly

Wig why didn't you keep quiet? I can't make any waffles for Aunt Lettie for there isn't a bit of flour in the bungalow I didn't want to let her know that But now you have put your foot in it!

Oh—I see! sadly said the bunny gentleman I have put my foot in the waffles Oh dear! Too bad Then he saw the acorns on the table and cried

Ha We are saved! Quick! Get the pan ready! Put the waffle iron on the stove to heat! We'll make waffles for Aunt Lettie yet!

How can we with no flour asked his wife

I'll grind some of these acorns up in the coffee grinder and make acorn flour and you shall bake acorn waffles cried the bunny gentleman his pink nose twinkling

So while Uncle Wiggily ground the acorns up into flour his wife made ready and heated the waffle iron And when the waffles were baked and set before Aunt Lettie swimming in melted butter and maple syrup why that lady goat just shook her horns with delight

Oh what lovely waffles she bleated You must tell me how you make them!

You had better ask my husband! laughed the rabbit lady So everything came out all right And if the hand organ monkey will play a tune for the raindrops to dance to I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and Bobbie Ring[illegible]

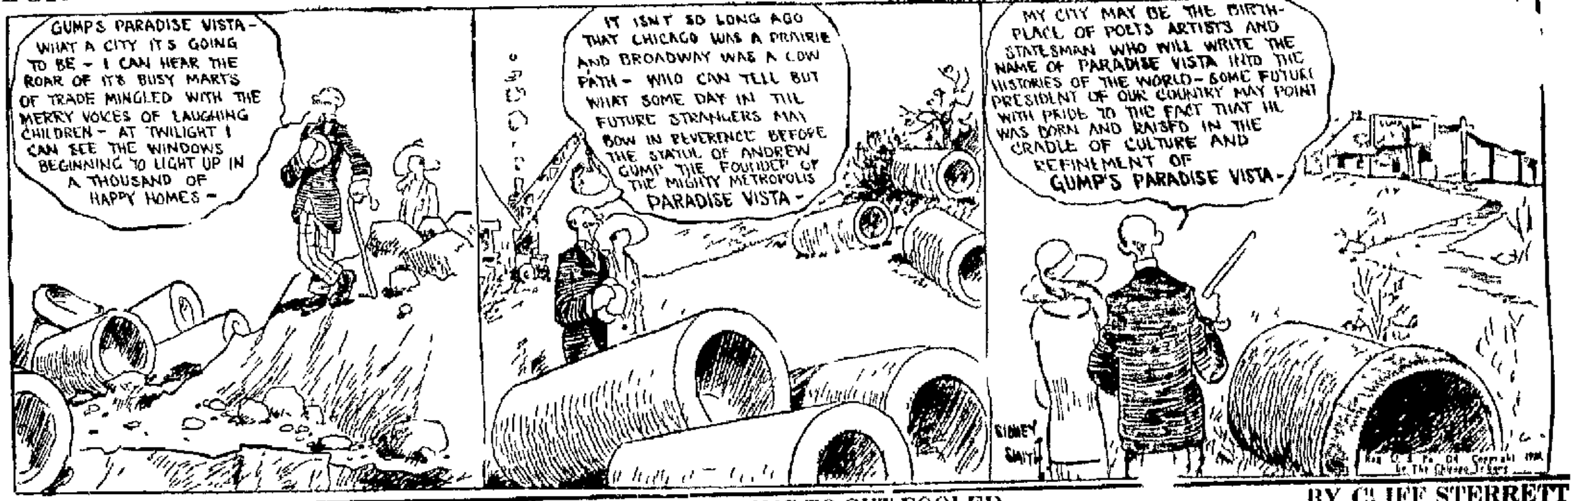
GLORIFYING THE AMERICAN SUBDIVISION

BY SIDNEY SMITH



GUMP'S PARADISE VISTA - WHAT A CITY IT'S GOING TO BE - I CAN HEAR THE ROAR OF IT'S BUSY MARTS OF TRADE MINGLED WITH THE MERRY VOICES OF LAUGHING CHILDREN - AT TWILIGHT I CAN SEE THE WINDOWS BEGINNING TO LIGHT UP IN A THOUSAND OF HAPPY HOMES -
IT ISN'T SO LONG AGO THAT CHICAGO WAS A PRAIRIE AND BROADWAY WAS A COW PATH - WHO CAN TELL BUT WHAT SOME DAY IN THE FUTURE STRANGERS MAY BOW IN REVERENCE BEFORE THE STATUE OF ANDREW GUMP THE FOUNDER OF THE MIGHTY METROPOLIS PARADISE VISTA -
MY CITY MAY BE THE BIRTH-PLACE OF POETS ARTISTS AND STATESMAN WHO WILL WRITE THE NAME OF PARADISE VISTA INTO THE HISTORIES OF THE WORLD - SOME FUTURE PRESIDENT OF OUR COUNTRY MAY POINT WITH PRIDE TO THE FACT THAT HE WAS BORN AND RAISED IN THE CRADLE OF CULTURE AND REFINEMENT OF GUMP'S PARADISE VISTA -
